

Mayor of Presevo

Sciprim Arifi from the village of Trnava, which is located in the municipality of Presevo, was born on June 14, 1976 in Mannheim, Germany.

Mr. Arifi attended the "Karl-Boch" elementary school in Germany from 1987 to 1995, from where he obtained the "Secondary stufe II" certificate. He also attended classes at the logistics department of the secondary school of economics "I Wirtschaft", which he successfully completed in 1998. He, thereupon, started working as the Head of the International Sector of the "HAAF" company.

In 2002, he started his own business in the field of logistics. He soon opened branches of his company in Stuttgart, Leipzig, Hamburg, Bratislava and Kumanovo.

He returned from Germany in 2003 in order to live in and contribute to the development of Presevo.

He was elected the Mayor of Presevo in 2016. Pursuant to the decision of the Government of the Republic of Serbia on the establishment of a provisional body in that local self-government, he was appointed the President of the Interim Body of the municipality of Preševo in September 2017.

In February 2018, Mr. Arfi was elected to the position of the Mayor of Presevo for the second time.

Sciprim Arifi is married and has three daughters.