

Dragijana Radonjic Petrovic

State Secretary for Regional Development

Date and place of birth: October 1, 1970, Pristina

Marital status: Married with two children

Education and Qualifications:

- She is currently doing MA degree studies in banking and financial management at Belgrade University's Faculty of Economics
- 1989-1994: BA degree studies in economics at Belgrade University's Faculty of Economics, Department for Finances, Banking and Insurance, where she obtained her BA degree in economics
- 1985-1989: Secondary school of economics in Kursumlija

Employment to date:

- 2009- Rose Capital doo,
- 2006 -2010: M&V Investments a.d, Head of the Managing Board
- 1998 -2006: M&V Investments a.d, Director General
- 1997 -1998: M&V Investments a.d, a broker

She started out on her career as a broker at the "M&V Investments" brokerage firm. She soon obtained a leading position at the said firm. As Director General of the said firm, she played one of the leading roles on the domestic financial market. Thanks to her efforts, she made the said brokerage firm the leading one on the market, which participated in some of the most important privatizations and transactions in Serbia

1995-1996 – Belgrade Discount Center

Activities:

She was a speaker at several conferences (Economist, Euro-money etc), EBRD Working Groups and at other gatherings. She frequently visits stock exchanges and other financial institutions abroad, with the aim of implementing their experiences on Serbia's capital market.

Board membership:

- Belgrade Stock Exchange- a member of the Managing Board
- Business Club "Businessman"- a member
- The Alliance of Economists of Serbia – a member of the Presidency
- The Alliance of Corporate Directors of Serbia – The founder and a member of the Presidency
- The US Commercial Service - a member
- Business Club "Momentum"

Other skills:

- Working knowledge of English
- Working knowledge of Russian
- Computer literate