

JELENA JAKSIC

Jelena Jaksic, assistant director of the Service of the Coordinating body for the municipalities of Presevo, Bujanovac and Medvegja, born in Čačak, where she finished primary and secondary school. She graduated from the Faculty of Law in Belgrade. She started her professional career in the marketing team at Večernje Novosti. She worked in the insurance company Sava for two years as a legal representative and the liquidation of claims for compensation.

In the public enterprise PTT traffic of Serbia, she worked as an independent associate in department of risk. She was appointed assistant director of the Coordinating Body Service in 2010. She won to many scholarships, among which are scholarships from the Ministry of Education and Sports of the Republic of Serbia, the fund for young talents, the municipality of Čačak, the endowments of Gjoka Vlajković, Miloš Jovanović and Luka Čalović, and also she won the Svetosav diplomas of the Faculty of Law for achieving excellent results during his studies.

She is a native speaker of English language, and has a basic knowledge of Spanish.